LIPPER LEADERS RATING (OVERALL)

Total Return	Consistent Return	Preservation	Lipper Leaders Key
②	②	⑤	Lowest ① Highest ⑤

The Lipper Leaders Ratings System is a set of tools that guide investors and their advisors to select funds that suit individual investment styles and goals. It uses investors-centred criteria to deliver a simple, clear description of a fund's success in meeting certain goals, such as preserving capital or building wealth through consistent strong returns.

Lipper Leader ratings are derived from highly sophisticated formulas that analyse funds against clearly defined criteria. Each fund is ranked against its peers based on the metric used (such as Total Return or Expense), and then the top 20% of funds in that ranking receive the Lipper Leader designation. Lipper Leaders measures are not predictive of future performance, but they do provide context and perspective for making knowledgeable fund investment decisions.

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTARY

Equity:
 Malaysian equities saw a slow start to the month, as the market lacked catalysts. However, after the US Federal Reserve ("Fed") announced the widely expected 25bps rate hike on 13 Dec, together with growing expectations of US President Trump being able to push through his tax reform, gave global market a boost. Commodity prices continued their upward trend with Brent crude oil prices hitting USD66.8/bbl by the end of the month, levels not seen since May 2015, on the back of extended production cuts by Organisation of the Petroleum Exporting Countries ("OPEC") and improving demand outlook as global growth recovery continues to be underway.
 FBM Shariah Emas Index ended the month on a new high on the last day of the month due to window dressing activities and foreign investors were net buy for the month of December of RM0.9bn. During the month, there were changes to the constituents of the index with the addition of Nestle, Sime Darby Property, and Sime Darby Plantations. The FBM Shariah Emas Index closed the month higher at 2.96% mom to close at 13,302.92 points. The broader market gained by 4.31%, outperforming the FBM Shariah Emas Index as sectors such as Construction (-0.02%) and Plantation (0.12%) did not perform well. The best performing sectors were Finance (+5.87%) and Technology (+5.26%), whilst the worst performing sectors were Construction (-0.02%) and Plantation (0.12%). The FTSE Bursa Malaysia ("FBM") Small Cap Index gained 1.57%. Average value traded on Bursa in Dec was RM2.65bn lower by 3% mom from Nov.

Fixed Income:
 In December's Federal Open Market Committee ("FOMC") meeting, the US Federal Reserve ("Fed") raised its federal funds rate by 25bps to 1.25%-1.50% from 1.00%-1.25%. The Fed followed through on an expected interest-rate increase but raised their forecast for economic growth in 2018 to 2.5% from 2.1%. Fed policymakers also maintained its forecast of three rate hikes in 2018.
 On the domestic front, the first Monetary Policy Committee ("MPC") meeting for 2018 will be held on 25 January. Previously, Bank Negara Malaysia ("BNM") commented that the current level of the Overnight Policy Rate ("OPR") provides a degree of monetary accommodativeness. However, BNM hinted that they may consider reviewing the current degree of monetary policy accommodation. As such, there is a possibility that Bank Negara may raise the Overnight Policy Rate ("OPR") in 2018 given the recent favourable economic growth and stable core inflation.
 Domestic corporate bond market is expected to see better supply in the pipeline in the coming months as issuers are rushing to tap the market in expectation of rising interest rates. This is mainly due to the prospects for tighter monetary policy in the advanced countries.
