LIPPER LEADERS RATING (OVERALL)

Total Return	Consistent Return	Preservation	Lipper Leaders Key
②	②	①	Lowest ① Highest ⑤

The Lipper Leaders Ratings System is a set of tools that guide investors and their advisors to select funds that suit individual investment styles and goals. It uses investors-centred criteria to deliver a simple, clear description of a fund's success in meeting certain goals, such as preserving capital or building wealth through consistent strong returns.

Lipper Leader ratings are derived from highly sophisticated formulas that analyse funds against clearly defined criteria. Each fund is ranked against its peers based on the metric used (such as Total Return or Expense), and then the top 20% of funds in that ranking receive the Lipper Leader designation. Lipper Leaders measures are not predictive of future performance, but they do provide context and perspective for making knowledgeable fund investment decisions.

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTARY

Global stockmarkets ended the year almost on a perfect high with major developed market indices reaching record closes on the penultimate trading day of the year. However, the month also saw a sector rotation out of technology and into cyclical, a result of the combination of year-end profit taking and the passage of tax reform in the US.

Nevertheless, Emerging Markets again outperformed Developed Markets, with Latin America performing best among regional exchanges in the Morgan Stanley Capital International Emerging Market ("MSCI EM") universe. For Asia, the sector rotation meant the tech-heavy north Asia indices underperformed southeast Asia although all major indices in Asia again made progress, with many touching ten-year highs. MSCI Asia Pacific ex Japan gained 3% with Indonesia comfortably outperforming other countries while the large indices in China, Hong Kong, Korea and Taiwan returned between 1.6% and 2.8%.

Hong Kong and China indices were rather subdued as investors chose to take profits as the People's Bank of China ("PBOC") raised its one-year marginal lending rate (OMO) by 5bps and tightened regulations against online micro-lenders and liquidity requirements for the major banks. Profit taking and sector rotation were also evident in Taiwan, which saw its technology sector lose ground while financials and industrials both gained.

Korean stocks dipped into the end of the month as foreign and retail investors took profits and as several shipbuilders issued profit warnings and subsequent capital raising announcements. Several chaebols also dragged on performance as they attempted to get ahead of likely regulatory tightening in 2018.

Southeast Asia outperformed with Thailand adding to gains from Indonesia to push the region higher, with Malaysia also ending the year strongly. Singapore made small gains but suffered from profit taking in its bank sector.

India was also a top performer with a 5% return after the market friendly BJP party won two key state elections paving the way for a growth orientated national budget to be announced later this year. Australia also benefitted from the surge in US markets with the local currency denominated ASX200 index closing at 10-year highs in December, and the US$ MSCI Australia index up 4.8%.
