LIPPER LEADERS RATING (OVERALL)

Total Return	Consistent Return	Preservation	Lipper Leaders Key
①	②	③	Lowest ① Highest ⑤

The Lipper Leaders Ratings System is a set of tools that guide investors and their advisors to select funds that suit individual investment styles and goals. It uses investors-centred criteria to deliver a simple, clear description of a fund's success in meeting certain goals, such as preserving capital or building wealth through consistent strong returns.

Lipper Leader ratings are derived from highly sophisticated formulas that analyse funds against clearly defined criteria. Each fund is ranked against its peers based on the metric used (such as Total Return or Expense), and then the top 20% of funds in that ranking receive the Lipper Leader designation. Lipper Leaders measures are not predictive of future performance, but they do provide context and perspective for making knowledgeable fund investment decisions.

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTARY

The Fund registered a negative return of 2.89% in September, behind of the target rate of return of +0.64% (8% pa compounded), on the back of weakness in regional markets.

September month has been a rough ride. The MSCI Asia Pacific ex-Japan index plunged 4.9% in the second week of the month then recovered strongly and closed the month down by 1.66%. During the month, the best performers were China (+3.1%), Thailand (+2.1%) and Korea (+1.5%). Meanwhile the laggards were Philippines (-7.3%), India (-6.4%) and Australia (-2.3%). Asian regional performance continues to drift lower on the back of tightening global financial conditions, global trade uncertainties and sharp rise in oil prices. Investors globally saw bouts of volatility as trade tensions and interest rates remain the key focus.

Asian currencies performance for the month of September was mixed. The Thailand Baht (+1.5%) and the Taiwanese dollar (0.8%) were the best performing currencies. The Thai Baht continues to stay strong supported by its large current account surplus along with high foreign reserves and strong economic growth expectation. The Indian Rupee (-2.4%), the Philippines Peso (-0.9%) and the Indonesian Rupiah (-0.6%) were the worst performing currencies. Contagion fears from Turkey and Argentina continues to weigh on Emerging Market currencies. Rising oil prices continues to put pressure on the current account deficit and in turn weighs on the Rupee and the Rupiah. Meanwhile, energy saw another upbeat month with Brent oil prices closed at USD82.95 per barrel, up 7.5% in September.

Key events during the month were the U.S – China trade tensions intensifies as Trump announced tariff on another $200b of Chinese imports. A 10% tariff to take effect on 24 September 2018 then the tariff will rise to 25% on the 1 January 2019. On the other hand, China announced a tariff list of $60b on US import with additional tariffs ranging between 5% and 10% and will likely to increase to 5-25% on January if the U.S continues its plan. US trade deficit in July widens as monthly deficits with China and EU hit record highs. Federal Reserve raised overnight funds rate to a range to 2% to 2.25%. Committee reiterated that further increase will be consistent with sustained economic expansion, labor conditions and 2% inflation target. Meanwhile, Turkey has hiked its one-week repo rate decisively by 625 bp to 24% to restore monetary policy credibility.
